

McNally House Hospice
Third Party Fundraising Event/Effort Agreement and Information

Thank you for your interest in organizing a fundraising event in support of McNally House! We appreciate and encourage your interest in our organization!

Before you begin, please take a moment to review our Vision and Mission statements:

Mission Statement

McNally House Hospice program exists to provide a caring, supportive residential hospice environment to patients and families within the Niagara West health care area.

Vision Statement

McNally House Hospice will be a leading residential hospice/palliative care program providing clinical services to all patients and families within the Niagara West community consistent with the Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Associations Norms of Practice. McNally House will be a leader in hospice palliative care education, affiliated with academic institutions, and will participate in and inform palliative care research and scholarly work. McNally House Hospice will provide an alternative setting of skilled 24-hour Palliative Care for people living with a terminal illness, as well as those in their life circle. This care will be responsive to timing and needs of people in the last days of life. The Hospice will be a collaborative community endeavor, with partnerships from existing health care institutions and broad community support.

Third Party Events

A Third Party Event (hereinafter “the Event”) is a fundraising activity that is planned, implemented and financed entirely by a third party individual or organization for the benefit of McNally House Hospice. All financial and personnel resources needed to support the Event are provided wholly from sources outside of McNally House Hospice.

We are honoured and humbled by your support of McNally House! Thank you for this wonderful initiative.

Before you begin organizing the Event, it is important that certain terms and conditions be established. The attached Agreement sets out these terms and we would request that you read the Agreement in its entirety before signing. If you have any questions in respect of the Agreement, please feel free to call us and we would be more than happy to discuss it with you!

Third Party Fundraising Event/Effort Agreement

The undersigned hereby acknowledge and agree as follows:

- The Event shall be planned, implemented and financed entirely by the Organizer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including without limitation the Event Information Sheet attached hereto, which forms part of this Agreement.
- McNally House Hospice shall have no obligation whatsoever with respect to financing, organization or implementation of Event and the Organizer hereby indemnifies and saves McNally House Hospice and all of its directors, officers, employees, servants, agents and other representatives (the "Indemnified Parties") harmless in respect of any and all liability or harm the Indemnified Parties may suffer as a result of the Event and the Organizer's use of the name "McNally House Hospice". The Organizer further covenants that, at the request of McNally House Hospice, the Organizer shall obtain a full release in favour of and in a form satisfactory to McNally House Hospice from any person, individual or other organization involved in financing, organizing, promoting or implementing the Event.
- Without limiting any other term herein, in the event that the costs of the Event exceed the revenue generated from the Event, McNally House Hospice shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of any such excess costs.
- McNally House Hospice hereby grants to the Organizer the non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the name "McNally House Hospice" for the limited purpose of promoting and implementing the Event in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, including the Event Information Sheet.
- The Organizer will only use the name "McNally House Hospice" in association with the Event and for no other purpose.
- All promotional materials shall identify McNally House Hospice as the beneficiary of the Event.
- In consideration of the use of the name "McNally House Hospice", the organizer covenants and agrees that all net proceeds from the Event shall be donated and delivered to McNally House Hospice within 40 days of the Event.
- The Development Coordinator or Executive Director of McNally House Hospice shall review and must approve all promotional materials in advance of publication by any means (paper or electronic).

- The Organizer acknowledges and agrees that the Organizer is not authorized to issue charitable or other receipts on behalf of McNally House and any such receipts, if any, shall be issued by and solely in the discretion of McNally House.
- McNally House Hospice reserves the right to cancel this Agreement and/or the Event at any time should the Organizer fail to comply with the terms and conditions in this Agreement.
- McNally House will make best efforts to be available to handle your requests around materials, information and representatives.
